(9) For the purposes of this regulation "turnover" means the value of securities purchased or sold during the period.

18. Financial year

The financial year of stockbrokers and dealers shall end on the 31st of December in each year.

19. Records to be maintained

(1) A stockbroker and dealer shall maintain and preserve for a period of seven years, the following accounting documents—

(a) journals or other records of original entry containing an itemized daily record of all purchases and sales of securities, all receipts and deliveries of securities (including certificate numbers), all receipts and disbursements of cash and all debits and credits; the records shall show the account for which each transaction was effected, the name and amount of securities, the unit and aggregate purchase or sale price (if any), the trade date and the name or other designation of the person from whom the securities were purchased or received or to whom they were sold or delivered;

- (b) ledgers, (or other records) reflecting all assets and liabilities, income, expense and capital accounts;
- (c) detailed records of nominee accounts;
- (d) all cheque books, bank statements, cancelled cheques and bank reconciliation accounts;
- (e) clients' accounts (or other records) itemizing separately each account of a client, all purchases, sales, receipts and deliveries of securities and all other debits and credits;
- (f) a memorandum of each client's order received for the purchase or sale of securities; the memorandum shall show orders in chronological sequence, the time of receipt, the terms and conditions of the order or instructions and of any modification or cancellation thereof, the account for which the order was entered, the time of entry into the market for execution, the price at which the order was executed and, to the extent feasible, the time of execution or cancellation;
- (g) copies of confirmation of all purchases and sales, notices of all other debits and credits for securities and other items for the account of client;
- (h) records on all commissions earned on account of equities, bonds and others;
- (i) contract books or records, showing details of all contracts entered into with trading participants of a securities exchange and duplicates of memoranda of confirmation issued to such other trading participant; and
- (j) any other accounting documents as may be determined by the Authority.

(2) The accounting documents specified under paragraph (1) shall be subject to inspection from time to time and without notice, by the Authority or securities exchange of which the stockbroker or dealer is a trading participant.

(3) A stockbroker shall maintain and preserve for each person who becomes a client, records and accounts for a period of seven years containing information on—

- (a) where the client comes through an investor agent, in the agent sub-account and where the client has been attended to by the supervisor or employee of the stockbroker authorized to attend to clients in the stockbroker's account, the client's name, date of birth, address, nationality or citizenship, identification, written instructions of the client, price limit, duration of the instructions and date of order and the name and address of the investor agent (where applicable) and where the client is a company, certified copies of memorandum and articles of association and the certificate of incorporation;
- (b) where the stockbroker, or any of its agents has made any recommendations to the client to purchase or sell any security, the record of such client shall include the client's occupation, identification, investment objectives, other information concerning the client's financial situation and needs which the stockbroker or any of its agents considered in making the recommendation, and the signature and name of the agent who made the recommendation to the client and the date when any order was given to the stockbroker or its agent and any price limit given;
- (c) a record or records with respect to each discretionary account including—
 - (i) the client's written authorization to the stockbroker to exercise discretionary power or authority in the client's account;
 - (ii) the reason given by the client for granting discretionary power or authority in his account; and

[Subsidiary]

- (iii) the written approval of the stockbroker's designated supervisor of each transaction in such account indicating the exact time and date of such approval;
- (d) a separate record for all complaints by clients and persons acting on behalf of clients; the complaints shall be filed alphabetically by clients' names and shall include copies of all materials relating to the complaint, and record of what action, if any has been taken by the stockbroker; copies of such materials and record of action taken shall be kept in the office through which the client's account is handled;
- (e) a separate record of all securities transactions by the stockbroker's or dealer's employees and directors in their own name or under nominees' accounts;
- (f) a separate record of all securities transactions between the stockbroker or dealer, and all listed companies in which the directors of the stockbroker or dealer have an interest; and
- (g) such other records as the Authority shall determine from time to time.

(4) A stockbroker shall decline to take an order if, after reasonable inquiry, the client declines to furnish such items of information as required in paragraph (3)(a), (b) and (c) and a statement to that effect is placed in the records, provided, however, that the client's records shall state the client's name and address.

20. Client accounts

A stockbroker shall—

- (a) deposit clients' funds in one or more bank account(s), which account(s) shall contain only clients' funds and be clearly marked "clients' accounts". Such client accounts shall not be overdrawn for any reason;
- (b) maintain a separate record for each account showing the name and address of the bank where the account is maintained, the dates, amounts of deposits and withdrawals and also the exact amount of each client's beneficial interest in the account;
- (c) reconcile such accounts on a regular basis to ensure the amount indicated corresponds with the balances in the client account at any given time; and
- (d) ensure that clients' orders for payments made in advance shall be executed according to clients' instructions and in any event not later than one month from the date of receipt of the clients' funds. Orders not executed within one month for whatever reason shall be renewed by fresh instructions from the client.

21. Reporting obligations

(1) Every stockbroker and dealer shall submit to the Authority and to the securities exchange of which they are trading participants—

- (a) quarterly reports and accounts within fifteen days of the end of each calendar quarter;
- (b) half yearly reports and accounts within thirty days of the end of each half year; and
- (c) audited annual accounts within three months following the end of the stockbroker and dealer's financial year;
- (d) a financial statement complying with the disclosures prescribed under the Fourth Schedule of these Regulations.

(2) Every stockbroker or dealer shall prepare monthly reports and accounts within fifteen days the end of each calendar month which shall be made available to the Authority at such times as the Authority may request.

22. Conduct of stockbrokers and dealers

(1) Stockbrokers and dealers shall—

- (a) operate independently of any other stockbroker or dealer;
- (b) conduct the business efficiently, honestly, and fairly, with the integrity and professional skills appropriate to the nature and scale of activities;
- (c) have no formal or informal agreement with a trading participant of the same securities exchange whether through an association or not, relating to the stockbroker's or dealer's trading activity, personnel, commissions or any joint activity that is likely to undermine the competitiveness or fair trade practices and service to clients.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), in consideration whether a stockbroker or dealer is conducting or will conduct business efficiently, honestly and fairly, regard shall be made to the management and organizational structure, reporting principles and procedures, internal audit procedures, procedures for compliance with the securities laws and risk management policies which the stockbroker or dealer has adopted or proposes to adopt for its business.

22A. Conducting business through a stock broking agent

(1) A stockbroker may conduct business through a stockbroking agent provided the stockbroking agent has been contracted in writing to render such services.

(2) Every stockbroker shall forward to the Authority, on an annual basis, a register of any stockbroking agents contracted pursuant to paragraph (1) and shall notify the Authority of any amendment to the register of agents within five working days of such change.

(3) A stockbroker shall be responsible for conducting all necessary due diligence to establish the competence, fitness and propriety of any person so appointed as a stockbroking agent, having specific regard to the past experiences and conduct of any such person, in establishing his capacity to facilitate the purchase and sale of securities as an agent of the stockbroker in the best interests of investors.

(4) A stockbroker shall submit to the Authority for approval the standard form agency agreement they propose to enter into with their stockbroking agents and shall thereafter secure the approval of the Authority prior to amending such agreement.

(5) A stockbroker shall not appoint as its agent any person already appointed by another stockbroker as its agent:

Provided that a stockbroker who, at the commencement of this provision, has appointed an agent who acts for more than one stockbroker shall, within six months of the commencement, comply with the requirements of this provision.

(6) A stockbroking agent shall not handle or deal with clients' funds.

(7) The stockbroker shall be responsible for ensuring that the stockbroking agent conducts his business efficiently, honestly and fairly with the integrity and professional skills appropriate to the nature and scale of activities and in accordance with the provisions of the Act and Regulations issued thereunder.

(8) In the event of any misconduct by the stockbroking agent, the stockbroker who appointed the stockbroking agent shall report the misconduct to the Authority within forty-eight hours of the occurrence of the misconduct.

23. Conduct of stockbrokers

(1) A stockbroker shall—

- (a) execute an order only where the client has made sufficient arrangements for funds or securities with the stockbroker;

[Subsidiary]

- (b) only accept written orders and shall ensure that the client is not only capable of honouring the order before acting on the order, but has made arrangements with the stockbroker for fulfilment of its obligations arising from such order;
- (c) execute clients' orders in the chronological sequence of orders received and which have been so recorded in accordance with these Regulations and shall give priority to orders of clients over orders of any shareholder or employee of the stockbroker or related dealer subsidiary, whether directly or indirectly;
- (d) maintain a daily record of orders received from clients showing the name of each client, the specific order and time the order was given, and execute the same in order of receipt;
- (e) exercise due diligence and care at all times so as not to misinform or misdirect clients;
- (f) while accepting an order from a client, inform the client of all constituent parts of an order prior to executing the order and get the client to give a written declaration to confirm the same;
- (g) provide factual and accurate information to clients' through newsletters and advertisements;
- (h) not recommend to a client the purchase, sale or exchange of any security without reasonable grounds to believe that the recommendation is suitable for the client on the basis of information furnished by the client after reasonable inquiry concerning the client's investment objectives, financial situation and needs, and any other information known or acquired by the stockbroker after reasonable examination of the client's financial records.

(2) An "order" for the purpose of this regulation, shall constitute written instructions by a client to a stockbroker as to the security name, quantity, price or price limits and duration or validity of instructions.

24. Prohibited dealings and associations

(1) No stockbroker or dealer shall—

- (a) create a false market in any listed security by way of any artificial device including but not limited to advising clients to buy or sell a particular security while selling or buying through its dealing or related party transactions, without disclosing that fact to the investors;
- (b) establish a corner or trade where a corner has developed in a listed security;
- (c) negotiate on any issue relating to trading with any other person on the trading floor of the securities exchange;
- (d) be party to any trading and price manipulative scheme or device which may directly or indirectly influence or interfere with the market price formation and fair trading process with respect to any listed security;
- (e) make general recommendations to the public on particular securities through publications or statements; or
- (f) sell securities which are not registered in the name of the stockbrokers' client or central depository in the case of a depository environment.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation, "a corner" shall be deemed to arise when a single interest or group has acquired such control of any listed security that the same cannot be obtained except at prices or on terms dictated by such single interest or group.

25. Sale of securities

(1) No stockbroker or dealer shall sell securities unless, at the time of the sale—

- (a) the stockbroker or dealer has or, in the case of a stockbroker, its client has; or
- (b) the stockbroker or dealer believes on reasonable grounds, that it has, or in the case of a stockbroker, its client has, an existing exercisable and unconditional right to vest the securities in a purchaser of the securities.

(2) A person who, at any particular time, has an existing exercisable and unconditional right to have securities vested in him or in accordance with his directions shall be deemed to have at that time a presently exercisable and unconditional right to vest the securities in another person.

(3) A right of a person to vest securities in another person shall not be deemed not to be unconditional by reason only of the fact that the securities are charged or pledged in favour of another person to secure the repayment of money.

(4) For purposes of this Part, a person shall be deemed to sell securities where he—

- (a) purports to sell securities;
- (b) offers to sell securities;
- (c) holds himself out as entitled to sell securities; or
- (d) instructs a stockbroker to sell securities.

26. Code of conduct to be approved

(1) Any proposed code of conduct or agreements to self-regulate the operations of stockbrokers and dealers, shall be submitted to the Authority for prior approval and must be consistent with these Regulations.

(2) No code of conduct of any associations or agreements of stockbrokers or dealers whether in written form or not shall seek to restrict free negotiation or competition by trading participants with regard to commissions payable on any transactions as provided in the Fifth Schedule.

27. Payment of transaction and Investor Compensation Fund fees

All stockbrokers and dealers shall pay to the Authority and to the securities exchange of which they are trading participants the fees prescribed as payable by every buyer and seller of a security and shall pay to the Investor Compensation Fund the fees prescribed as payable by each buying and selling stockbroker, or dealer within fifteen days following a transaction.

PART IV – INVESTMENT ADVISERS AND FUND MANAGERS

 - (ii) any receipts, disbursement or delivery of funds or securities; and
 - (iii) the placing or execution of any order to purchase or sell any security; provided, that if the investment adviser or fund manager sends any notice, circular or other advertisement offering any report, analysis, publication or other investment advisory services to more than ten persons, the investment adviser or fund manager shall not be required to keep a record of the names and addresses of the persons to whom it was sent except that if such notice, circular or advertisement is distributed to persons named on any list, the investment adviser or fund manager shall retain a copy of such notice, circular or advertisement, a record or memorandum describing the list and the source thereof;
- (g) deleted by L.N. 67/2022, r. 5(a);
- (h) deleted by L.N. 67/2022, r. 5(b);

[Subsidiary]

- (i) all written agreements or copies thereof entered into by the investment adviser or fund manager with any client or otherwise relating to the investment adviser's or fund manager's business;
- (j) a copy of each notice, circular, advertisement, newspaper article, investment letter, bulletin or other communication recommending the purchase or sale of a specific security, which the investment adviser or fund manager circulates or distributes, directly or indirectly, to ten or more persons, and if such notice, circular, advertisement, newspaper article, investment letter, bulletin or other communication does not state the reasons for such recommendation, a memorandum from the investment adviser or fund manager (as the case may be) indicating the reasons thereof; all advertisements by the investment adviser or fund manager and all records, worksheets and calculations necessary to form the basis for performance data in such advertisements;
- (k) a record of every transaction in a security in which the investment adviser or fund manager or any of the investment adviser or fund manager's employees acquire any direct or indirect beneficial ownership; the record shall state the title and amount of the security involved, the date, whether the transaction was a purchase or sale or other acquisition or disposition, the price at which it was effected, and the name of the stockbroker with or through whom the transaction was effected; and
- (l) a copy of each written statement, the amendment or revision thereof, given or sent to any client or prospective client of such investment adviser or fund manager and a record of the dates that the same was given or offered to be given;
- (m) any other records as may be determined by the Authority.

(2) The records specified under paragraph (1) shall be subject to inspection from time to time and without notice, by the Authority.

(3) Each investment adviser and fund manager shall preserve and maintain clients' records of securities or funds and if required produce for inspection by the Authority such books, records and ledgers, or other accepted accounting and additional records as may be required by the Authority for a period of seven years and shall—

- (a) notify the Authority of the custodian appointed; and
- (b) segregate the securities of each client and mark such securities to identify the particular client having the beneficial interest therein.

32. Reporting obligations

(1) Every fund manager shall submit to the Authority—

- (a) quarterly management accounts and reports of the portfolio under its management within fifteen days of the end of each calendar quarter:

Provided that every fund manager shall prepare monthly reports of the portfolio under its management within fifteen days of the end of each calendar month, which shall be made available to the Authority at such times as the Authority may require;

- (b) half-yearly reports of the portfolio under its management within thirty days of the end of each half-year, including reports of its own financial performance;
- (c) annual reports of the total value of the portfolio under its management including the number of clients; and
- (d) audited annual accounts for its operations in the form prescribed in the Fourth Schedule within three months following the closure of the financial year.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1), the Authority may require such other form of financial statement as it may from time to time specify.

33. Conduct of investment advisers and fund managers(1) No investment adviser or fund manager shall—

- (a) recommend to a client to whom investment, supervisory, management or consulting services are provided, the purchase or sale of any security without reasonable grounds to believe that the recommendation is suitable for the client on the basis of information furnished by the client after reasonable inquiry concerning the client's investment objectives, financial situation and needs, and any other information known or acquired by the investment adviser or fund manager after reasonable examination of the client's financial records;
- (b) place an order to purchase or sell a security for the account of a client without written authority to do so;
- (c) place an order to purchase or sell a security for the account of a client upon instruction of a third party without first having obtained a written third-party authorization from the client;
- (d) exercise any discretionary power in placing an order for the purchase or sale of securities for a client without obtaining written discretionary authority from the client;
- (e) induce trading in a client's account that is excessive in size or frequency in view of the financial resources, investment objectives and character of the account;
- (f) misrepresent to any client, or prospective client, its qualifications or misrepresent the nature of the advisory services being offered or fees to be charged for such service or omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements regarding qualifications, services or fees, in light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading;
- (g) provide a report or recommendation to any client prepared by someone other than the investment adviser without disclosing that fact;
- (h) fail to disclose to clients in writing before any advice is rendered any material conflict of interest relating to the investment adviser or fund manager or any of the investment adviser's or fund manager's employees, which could reasonably be expected to impair the rendering of unbiased and objective advice, including—
 - (i) compensation arrangements connected with advisory services to clients which are in addition to compensation from such clients for such services; or
 - (ii) charging a client an advisory fee for rendering advice when a commission for executing securities transactions pursuant to such advice will be received by the investment adviser or fund manager or his employees;
- (i) guarantee a client that a specific result will be achieved arising from the advice which will be rendered except in the case of fixed income securities;
- (j) publish, circulate or distribute any advertisement which does not comply with the Act;
- (k) disclose the identity, affairs, or investment of any client to any third party unless required by law, court order or a regulatory agency to do so, or unless consented to by the client; and
- (l) enter into, extend or renew any investment advisory contract unless such contract is in writing and discloses in substance the services to be provided, the term of the contract, the advisory fee, the formula for computing the fee, the amount of prepaid fee to be returned in the event of contract termination or non-performance, whether the contract grants discretionary power to the investment adviser or fund manager and that no assignment of such contract shall be made by the investment adviser or fund manager without the consent of the other party to the contract;

- (m) fail to register all securities marketed and offered to clients by the investment adviser or fund manager or otherwise inform the client that the securities offered to them have not been registered with or approved by the Authority.

(2) Any information provided by investment advisers or fund managers to clients through newsletters and advertisements shall be factual and accurate.

(3) No investment adviser or fund manager shall loan money to a client unless the investment adviser or fund manager is a financial institution engaged in the business of loaning funds or the client is an affiliate of the investment adviser or fund manager.

(4) An investment adviser or fund manager may not contract or engage any advisory or management services on behalf of an investment portfolio without prior written approval of its clients. The investment adviser or fund manager shall remain liable hereunder—

- (a) for any act or omission of the sub-contracted investment adviser or fund manager;
- (b) the fees and expenses of any such person, which shall not be payable out of the fund of the portfolio investments; and
- (c) any expenses incurred by any such person which if incurred by the investment adviser or the fund manager would have been payable out of the fund of the investment portfolio.

(5) When accepting an order from a client the investment adviser or fund manager shall inform the client of all constituent parts of the service agreement prior to executing the order and get the client to give it a written declaration to confirm the same.

(6) The investment adviser or fund manager shall be fair and equitable in the event of any conflict of interest that may arise in the course of its duties.

34. Appointment of a custodian

(1) A fund manager that manages discretionary funds shall appoint a custodian for the assets of the Fund.

(2) A custodian of an investment portfolio may in relation to the fund manager be a holding company or a subsidiary company within the meaning of the terms as defined in section 154 of the Companies Act (Cap. 486) or be deemed by the Authority to be otherwise under control of substantially the same persons or consist substantially of the same shareholders, provided that the investment in a related company shall be limited to ten per cent of the total funds managed by the fund manager.

(3) The Authority may revoke the approval of a custodian if at any time thereafter the custodian ceases to satisfy the requirements of these Regulations.

35. Duties of a custodian

(1) A custodian shall render custodial services to the investment portfolio managed by the investment adviser or fund manager in accordance with the written service agreement between the custodian and the investment adviser or fund manager as the case may be and such service shall include—

- (a) taking into its custody or under its control all the property of the clients of the fund manager and hold it in trust for the clients in accordance with the provisions of the written service agreement provided that cash and registrable assets shall be registered in the name of or to the order of the clients by the custodian;
- (b) receiving and keeping in safe custody title documents, securities and cash amounts of the investment portfolio;
- (c) opening an account in the name of each client for the exclusive benefit of such investment portfolio;

- (d) transferring, exchanging or delivering in the required form and manner securities held by the custodian upon receipt of proper instructions from the investment adviser or fund manager;
- (e) requiring from the investment adviser or fund manager as the case may be, such information as it deems necessary for the performance of its functions as a custodian;
- (f) promptly delivering to the fund manager or to such other persons as fund manager may authorize, copies of all notices, proxies, proxy soliciting materials received by the custodian in relation to the securities held in the fund account, all public information, financial reports and stockholder communications the custodian may receive from the issuers of securities and all other information the custodian may receive, as may be agreed between the custodian, fund manager;
- (g) exercising subscription, purchase or other similar rights represented by the securities subject to receipt of proper instructions from the fund manager;
- (h) exercising the same standard of care that it exercises over its own assets in holding, maintaining, servicing and disposing of property and in fulfilling obligations in the agreement;
- (i) where title to investments are recorded electronically, ensuring that entitlements of the clients of the fund manager are separately identified in the records of entitlement maintained by the custodian.

(2) A custodian shall in executing its duties under paragraph (1) exercise the degree of care expected of a prudent professional custodian for hire.

(3) A custodian discharging its contractual duties to an investment adviser or fund manager shall not contract agents to discharge those functions except where a portion of the investment portfolio is invested in offshore investments in which case the custodian may engage the services of an overseas sub-custodian approved by the fund manager as the case may be with notification of such appointment to the Authority.

(4) The agreement referred to in paragraph (1) between the custodian and the fund manager shall make provision on the computation of the fee in respect of custodial services which will be disclosed to the clients by the fund manager in the annual report.

36. Custodian's records and reports

(1) A custodian shall keep such records as may be necessary to ascertain—

- (a) the entire fund of the investment portfolio held by the custodian;
- (b) each transaction carried out by the custodian on behalf of the fund manager as the case may be.

(2) The records referred to in paragraph (1) shall be subject to inspection by the fund manager as the case may be or a duly authorized agent of the Authority within the premises of the custodian at any time during business hours.

(3) The custodian shall make available to the fund manager—

- (a) a written statement at agreed reporting dates which lists all assets of the fund manager's clients in the clients' account(s) together with a full account of all receipts and payments made and other actions taken by the custodian;
- (b) an advice or notification of any transfers of property or securities to or from the fund managers clients' account(s) and indicating the securities acquired for the account(s), the identity of the party having physical possession of such securities; and
- (c) a copy of the most recent audited financial statements of the custodian prepared together with such information regarding the policies and procedures of the custodian as the investment manager or fund manager may request in connection with the agreement or the duties of the custodian under that agreement.

(4) The custodian shall prepare and submit to the Authority an annual report demonstrating how compliance with these Regulations and its service agreement have been achieved.

[L.N. 67/2022, r. 9]

37. Retirement of a custodian
